

Autumn Picnic

One autumn day
Out on a spree
With Willie the wasp
And Bertie the bee.

Willie took sausages,
Peaches and cake.
Bertie took melon,
Peanuts and steak.

First they played games
In and out of the wood;
Then spread out the lunch-
My! It looked good.

They sat down at once
And what do you think?
They ate it all up
As quick as a wink!

They took off their shoes
And lay down to rest.
Willie loosened the hooks
On his striped yellow vest.

When they woke up
It was getting quite dark.
Willie tootled his flute
And Bert sang like a lark.

'Rum-tiddle!' sang Bertie,
'That's the end of our spree.
And now we'll fly home
In time for our tea.'